Finding a townhouse on West 71st Street (between Central Park West and Columbus Avenue, specifically) may not be that surprising, but a brand-new townhouse? This one, constructed in 2013, offers 8,300 square feet of space on six floors, with five bedrooms, six-plus bathrooms and two kitchens — one outdoors, on the rooftop deck with Central Park views. Agent: Adam Modlin, The Modlin Group, 212-974-0740
